Welcome to the 2022 Rio Linda/Elverta Country Faire Expo

The Rio Linda/Elverta Country Faire Expo brings together all the talent, creativity, and vision that our community has to offer. This book and expo is open to all residents of the Rio Linda and Elverta Community.

Separate Divisions are listed for Juniors (age 4-13), Youth (14-17), Adult (18+), as well as Professional. The age of an entrant, unless otherwise stated, is based on the participant's age on 1/1/2022. The exhibitor will select the appropriate Section for their participation. The same class numbers are used in each age section.

Pre-registration of entries is required so that the check-in process will be smooth and easy for everyone involved. There is no fee to enter.

The Rio Linda/Elverta Country Faire and the Rio Linda Grange are not responsible for errors on entry forms. No exhibitor shall be entitled to an award that has been disallowed because of his/her own error. Entries not meeting contest rules, including labeling, will be disqualified and excluded from awards.

Entries must be the work of the exhibitor and completed during the contest year. Except for classes using recycled items, materials should be new. Work should be clean and in good repair. While all efforts will be made to ensure the safety of all entries, The RLE Country Faire nor the Rio Linda Grange will be held responsible for damage or loss of entries. Entries of food, produce, or flowers may be discarded due to spoilage.

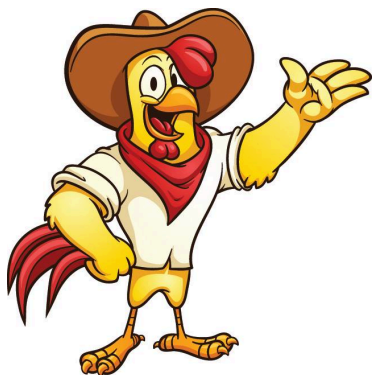

Decisions of the judges as recorded on the judging sheets are final. To encourage high standards the judges shall place exhibits based on merit. Judges may withhold placings as they see fit. Best of Show awards will be awarded at the judge's discretion to superior exhibits.

Judging System

American: A method of judging in which entries are ranked against each other and the best entries are selected for placing. Normally, only a single 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place award in the class will be awarded.

It is important for exhibitors to be familiar with the rules under which these contests are held. If you have questions regarding the application of rules, qualification of entries or exhibitors please contact the RLECF Expo Committee at RLECFExpo@gmail.com
